DEATH CLIPPINGS

Contributed by Donna Shearer, 312 Baughman Ave., Danville, KY 40422

(Edited to genealogical data only jww)

Mrs. Octavia Burton, nee Whitlock, was born November 22, 1827, and departed this life August 22, 1894. She was married to Robert W. Burton, July 28, 1844, and in that union they lived to life's close as happily as ever man and wife did. She had a large family of children, and never did mother care more tenderly for her offspring than she. She professed religion and joined the M.E. Church, South, in 1845...

Miss Martha Jane Burton died at her home at Lynchburg, Wednesday, July 7, 1909 after a long illness. The funeral service was conducted at the home on Thursday by Rev. Lawrence Hosale and her body was laid away in the Masonic and Odd Fellows Cemetery. She was reared in this community and had the confidence and esteem of the people among whom she had lived for more than half a century. She was a member of the M.E. Church, South, and was a good woman. Burial by McDowell.

Mr. Finefus Burton died at the home of his father, Mr. Wilse Burton, near town Thursday morning, January 17, at five o'clock after a short illness, aged 32 years. He leaves a wife and little child and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn his death.

NOTE: Donna says the last clipping would have been 1900-1905. jww

Lincoln County Genealogical Society
c/o Mabel Tucker
Route 2, Box 170A
Fayetteville, Tennessee 37334

Dear Member,

The purpose of this letter is to give you a few accomplishments and future goals of the Lincoln County Genealogical Society. It was organized September 5, 1976 with ten charter members. It is an all volunteer organization dedicated to the accumulation and preservation of records of Lincoln County families, and to the establishment of a larger genealogical library. Previous to its establishment, basic genealogical research had to be done in the Heritage Room in Huntsville, Alabama or the State Archives. Our hope is to stop the duplication of efforts in searching for family lines, to duplicate old records and to save as many old original records as possible.

Our fiscal year starts January 1, and our dues are $5 a year. We became affiliated with Jane Waller's publication, "Lincoln County Tennessee Pioneers", in September 1978. This publication is $6 a year and is optional. It is published in January and June, and as a member or subscriber, you are entitled to free queries.

The work of our organization is done entirely by volunteers. Each member is requested to fill out an ancestor chart, beginning with the member's name, and a family record sheet on our oldest ancestor from this area. These forms will be mailed to you, and must be returned if we are to help you. These records do not have to be complete, but give us as many full names and dates as possible. You may send in as many records as you like, but be sure your name and address are on each page. We cross-index each ancestor chart. We now have over 900 charts covering approximately 22,000 family names. Each 200 charts are duplicated, indexed, made into a hard backed book and placed in the public library. Your family record sheets are filed according to the surname. When we receive enough information, these are duplicated. These duplicates are placed in binders and put in the public library.

In order to protect our original copies, we have been forced to leave the library building. At the present time we are renting an art studio for $15 a month. It is located at the corner of Swanson Blvd. and Northview Street. Our original files are open to members only. We have the above location the first Sunday of each month at 2 P.M. for a business meeting and to help members with genealogical problems.

The local volunteers of your society are very grateful for your help and ask for your continued support. As a member, we will continue to send you names and addresses of the people working on the surnames of your Ancestor Chart. Please notify change of address immediately. If you receive correspondence returned because of wrong address or no forwarding address, please alert us so we can update our files.

This is our financial report as of November 8, 1982.

This does not include the numerous donations and memorial gifts made to the Lincoln County Library by our members. They started the funds for both the copying machine and the microfilm reader, and contributed most of the money for each. They have donated dozens of genealogical research books and family history books to the library.

We would be happy to have donations of any papers, pictures, documents, or books pertaining to genealogy.

CORRECTIONS & ADDITIONS TO ENOCHS

Contributed by Virginia Nesler Anderson, 310 S. 5th St., Fairbury, Ill. 61739 January, 1983

Because new data has come to light, the following additions and changes should be noted concerning the ENOCHS family of LCT.

- (1) The first documented ancestor of the Enochs family was Enochson, The "son" always being added to the surname.
- (2) The spelling of the surname ENOCHS should be read with an "s"-- there are those who continue to drop the "s", but for the family coming from Rowan Co., NC, Gabriel, Enochs is the spelling.
- (3) John Enochs, father of Gabriel of LCT was born 1703/04;
"Mormon Film #567,028, Albert Cook Myer's notes - Early Swedish Settlers - "John Enochson age 36 years remembers that Amos Nicholas shew's him a marked poplar tree standing near Naamous Mill Damm which tree the said Amos Nicholas informed him stood in the Line Run by the Lord Baltimore. Endorsed: Nicholas Skruh's information from Potomich." MS Penn. vs Balt. in Chew Papers at "Cliveden." Germantown, Dec. 16, 1922. There was no date, but from other items, the testimony was taken 1739 or 1740.
- (4) John Enochs, son of Gabriel of LCT was married twice. (1) to Rebecca (Smith?), who was born 23 Feb. 1771; d. 9 Jan. 1810
(2) to Phebe Tudor, dau. of Henry and Nancy Tudor.
Rebecca had no issue. John and Phebe's family were:
Felix Grundy Enochs mrd. Fannie

(Cont'd Enochs corrections)

THE THOMAS JEFFERSON & HENRY WARREN PAYNE FAMILY

Contributed by Mary Lawson Payne Currie, Rt. 1 Box 101, Kennard, TX 75847 (Taken from Houston Co., TX book published 1981 (?) by County Historical Commission, Crockett, TX

In 1847 Thomas Jefferson and Nancy Warren Payne brought their family from Lincoln County Tennessee to settle in East Houston County. The family first settled near Old Zion Cemetery but soon moved to a location near the Neches River which was later known as the Mt. Vernon Community. There were three sons: (Mrs. Currie adds a note that there were four sons, as Thomas B. was not shown here) Henry Warren, Jerry, and Bill (Wm. F.) and one daughter, Ann, included in this family. Ann later married James Ashby. Thomas Jefferson 'Squire' was postmaster at Colthorp in 1859 and 1860. His home was located on the Mail Route and Sumpter Stage Line coming from Randolph through Colthorp to Shook's Bluff on the Neches River and on to Nacogdoches. It served as a stoppingplace for the stage coach and the mail was exchanged here and then traveled on its way to Nacogdoches. While his sons were serving in the Civil War, Squire built small cabins around his home for his daughters-in-law to live while their husbands were away. Thomas Jefferson Payne died in 1878 and his wife died in 1885. Both were buried in Old Zion Cemetery.

Henry Warren Payne was born in Lincoln County Tennessee in 1833, prior to his parents' move to Texas. He married Caroline Stallings from Cherokee County. To this union was born five children of which two survived: America Warren, who later married John T. Collier and Annie, who married Julius Collier.

During the Civil War, Henry joined the Confederate Army with a group of men at Shook's Bluff. While serving in the army he became ill, somewhere in Louisiana, so Henry's father and his wife Caroline took the baby America Warren (Meck) and rode horseback to visit him.

After the war, he came back home to his family, but on September 9, 1866 Caroline died and was buried in Old Zion Cemetery with the three children, who died at birth, or at an early age.

Henry then married Margaret Burke, who was also from Cherokee County. To this union was born ten children of which seven survived. These were: Belle, who married Tom Taylor; Addie, whose husband was Charlie Hobbs; Myrtle, who married George M. Dowdy. The sons were: Arch, who married Texine Hobbs; Jeff, whose wife was Ella Conner (granddaughter of W.M. Conner); Tom Henry, whose wife was Ella Brasher and Cleveland, who went to Memphis, Tennessee, became a doctor of medicine, and spent the rest of his life there. In 1876 Henry built a larger house for his family to replace the log cabin which had been home for himself and Caroline and the early years of marriage spent with Margaret. The homesite of Henry Payne's home was on top of the next hill north of his father's home. The new house was built of lumber that was planed by hand. It had a dog run dividing the main part of the house, having a parlor and a bedroom on one side and two bedrooms on the other side with one bedroom upstairs. There was a long porch across the front of the house. The kitchen and dining room were separated by a breezeway.

Margaret died in the late 1880's and so again Henry was left a widower with a family for which to care. In time, he was married to Mary Ann Manning Luker whose home was in Alto, Texas. Mary Ann was a young widow whose husband had died and left her with a young son, William Franklin Luker. She was a seamstress and it was through her sewing that she met Henry. He hired her to do some sewing for his young family, who had been left motherless. In 1890 they were married at Old Palestine Church located on the El Camino Real near Alto. He brought his bride and her little son home to Houston County and they had three children: Birdie Lee, Porter Lawson and Annie.

In 1898 Henry died and was buried in the Mt. Vernon Cemetery. He had given the land on which this cemetery is located and his sister Ann's baby daughter was the first grave in the cemetery in 1872. A few years later he gave an adjoining five acres of land on which to build the Mt. Vernon church. A few years after Henry's death a cousin of Mary Ann's, Edd Manning, married Maud Collier (granddaughter of Henry). Maud died at the birth of her first child, Isham Collier Manning. After his mother's death, he was brought by his father to Mary Ann to be cared for. He was reared in the Payne family as a foster brother to Mary Ann's children. At age 16 Birdie Lee began teaching school and taught in the public schools of Houston and Trinity counties for fifty years. She died in 1963. Annie never married, but lived at home until her death in 1965. During her lifetime she was active in the Mt. Vernon Baptist Church which her father had helped to build...(photocopy becomes blurred)

DEATH: Mr. James G. Russell, residing about two miles north of Millville, in this county, committed suicide by hanging last Sunday evening, while deranged. He was unmarried, 55 or 60 years of age, and possessed of a competence. The act was deliberate, for after his death it was found that he made arrangements for it several hours before. After tying the rope around his neck, in the stable, he jumped from the feed trough, breaking his neck.

THE LAST EXECUTION: The last execution, under the sanction of law, in Fayetteville, was of a negro slave named Alfred Stephens, for the murder of his owner Mr. William Stephens. He was hanged, Friday, March 1st, 1861, and at the gallows - situated on the hill, above the African Methodist Church - he made a rambling, disjointed speech, in which he endeavored to transfer the responsibility of the murder from himself to his own mother and a negro named Jake. In July, 1864, there was a triple execution in Fayetteville. - Three persons - Pickett, Burrough and John R. Massey - were shot near the Female Academy by order of Gen. Paine, under military rule, but everybody knows that they were murdered. Neither law, justice nor necessity required their death. They were the victims of a blood-thirsty tyrant.

COLD WATER - No occurrences of any note save one death. Mrs. Smith, wife of James Smith, departed this life the 15th inst. - disease of standing, but not known by the writer.

SHOCKING MURDER - A revolting crime was committed at the Fayetteville Flouring Mills last Friday night at 10 o'clock. The circumstances are about as follows: George Quarles alias Harding, aged 19 years, who was employed to pack flour, boisterously entered the building, intoxicated, cursing at a heavy rate. The watchman, F.A. Boyce, remonstrated, asked what he wanted, and told him that such conduct could not be permitted. Harding replied that he was after his coat, that he would talk as he pleased, that he would not leave, and no one should put him out. After considerable bantering, Boyce took him by the coat and quietly led him out. Harding stabbed Boyce in the left side of the neck with a knife, severing the left carotid artery, the jugular vein, and wounding the bone of the neck. Death followed in three minutes or less. Harding was arrested Saturday morning about three miles west of this place at the McCarthey Bend, brought to town, tried by Esq.'s F.P. Fulton and L.L. Cole, and committed to jail for trial at the Circuit Court. Boyce was buried Saturday evening in Rose Hill Cemetery. He was a native of Giles county, moved to Illinois since the war, thence to this county, where he had resided about three years, was a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, and is very highly spoken of by those who knew him best...Harding is from White county, where he is reported to have been engaged in illicit distilling.
